[Intro] F

F F/E F F/E Dm A
And if the snow buries my / My Bb F F
neighborhood
F F/E F
And if my parents are crying / Then
F/E Dm
I'll dig a tunnel
A Bb F
from my window to yours / Yeah
F/E Dm A Bb F
a tunnel from my window to yours
F F

F F/E F
You climb out the chimney / And
F/E Dm
meet me in the middle
A Bb F F F
The middle of the town / And since
F/E F
there's no one else around
F/E Dm
We let our hair grow long / And
A Bb F
forget all we used to know

F/E Dm
Then our skin gets thicker / From
A Bb F
living out in the snow
F F/E F
You change all the lead /
F/E
Sleepin' in my head
Dm Dm/E Dm
As the day grows dim / I hear
Dm/E C C/D C/E C/F C/G
you sing a golden hymn

F . . . F . . .
[Instrumental]

F F/E F
Then we tried to name our babies /
F/E Dm
But we forgot all the names that
A Bb F F
The names we used to know

F F/E
But sometimes, we remember our F F/E Dm bedrooms / And our parent's bedrooms
A Bb F
And the bedrooms of our friends
F/E Dm
Then we think of our parents / Well
A Bb
whatever happened to them?
F F/E F
You change all the lead /
F/E
Sleepin' in my head
Dm Dm/E Dm
To gold / As the day grows dim /
Dm/E C
I hear you sing a golden hymn
C/D C/E
The song I've been trying to say
C/F C/G

F F/E F
Purify the colors / Purify my F/E
mind
Dm Dm/E Dm Dm/E
Purify the colors / Purify my C
mind
And spread the ashes of the colors
F
/ over this heart of mine
